ASSUMED PRESENT:
(Attendance Not Taken)

Mrs. C. J. Feeley
Mrs. H. G. Herrlein
Mrs. F. Noyes

Mrs. Edith Switz
Mrs. T. W. Youmans

The New City Free Library held its meeting at the school house on April 29 at three p.m.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Noyes reported on the entertainment & lecture to be given for the benefit of the library fund, and it was thought best to have it some time during the week of May eleventh.

Mrs. Noyes reported that Mrs. A. Callishan would donate a new book.

The committee has the choice of selecting any good book. The book chosen is "North to the Orient" By Ann Lindbergh.

Mrs. Edith Switz was late for the meeting due to traffic hold up caused by an accident. She phoned she would be here as soon as possible.

Miss Margaret Burd will give an illustrative talk on Indian life.

Tickets for the entertainment would be

Adults - .25

Children - .15

Mr. H. Herrlein will type write the tickets for entertainment. Mrs. Youmans was asked to attend the annual school Board meeting and ask permission to use the school for the entertainment, also ask about shelves for the library.

No other business at present so meeting was adjourned at 5 p.m.
