Mrs. Royce reported that she had consulted the School Trustees about putting up shelves, and was told that shelves might be put up over the folding tables, but not where the chairs are piled, as the ventilating system would be interfered with.

Mr. Osborne offered to donate the lumber for shelves. Mrs. Youmans asked Mr. Stark if he would put up the shelves and stain the new small book case and screen. Mr. Stark agreed to do the work at small cost.

Seventy-one ^{new} books were bought for $105.

A motion was made and seconded that we spend five dollars a month on new books.

Meeting was adjourned.
